JavaScript OOP Exercises
Employee Manger

1. Create a simple page that's in layout.pdf using html Css3/bootstrap

2. Write a javascript program that will contain the following functions :

   a. AddNewEmployee()
      To add a new Employee to the Array DataList []
      Using the class Employee

   b. DeleteEmployee(id)
      Delete a specific Employee according to the given id
       from the Array DataList []

   c. getTotalSalaryExpensess()
      Give the total of all Employees salary from the Array DataList []

   d. showDOM()
      After adding or deleting you need to call showDOM to change the HTML document according to Array DataList []

3. Make a class declaration with the name Employee that will have the following properties:
   a. name
   b. salary
   c. Id (will generate automatically)
   d. Address
   e. City
   f. Work hours

 you should use the class declaration to add new Employees

 The DOM (HTML Document) should show the (add, delete) changes immediately